RIPTA IN THE COMMUNITY

As 2015 begins, the Rhode Island Public Transit Authority (RIPTA) is looking forward to another year of great community partnerships and making worthwhile contributions to the people and places we serve.

Over the past year, RIPTA has been proud to lend support to a wide variety of worthy causes – whether it was filling a bus with teddy bears for Hasboro Children's Hospital or collecting more than 1,500 pounds of food for the Rhode Island Community Food Bank.

RIPTA has created a short social media video highlighting some of our community service programs from 2014 and it can be viewed here.

Enjoy the ride!
